3	Participants	45
4	Objective of programme	To grow spiritually and become closer to Allah and their loved ones.
5	Program description	Ramadan is the holiest month of the year in Islamic culture. For Muslims, it's a time for spiritual reflection and growth, to help those in need, and to spend time with loved ones. It's also a time when Muslims around the world fast during daylight hours for the whole month of Ramadan. It teaches self-discipline and self-control by withdrawing one from worldly things, following the teachings of Islam, and abstaining from any sinful activity. On the auspicious day, all came together to seek the blessings of the goddess of knowledge. The event was ended by giving nonbu kanji to all by our Secretary. People can eat and drink again once the sun has set. The traditional way to break the fast is by eating dates and drinking a glass of water. Then, the evening meal, Iftar, is a social event that can go on for hours. It is common for people to eat together in large groups of family and friends. Special foods are prepared and shared
6	Outcome of the programme	Apart from its religious importance, observing fast during Ramzan leads to many health benefits such as improved alertness and brain function.
