1	Event Name	TIME MANAGEMENT FOR ONLINE EDUCATIONS
2	Date of event	18.02.2021
3	Resource person	Mr. M. Ramnath, AP/CSE/TEC
4	Participants	57
5	Objective of the Event	To Identify your own particular time wasters and adopt strategies for reducing them.
6	Event description	One of the most valuable skills you can have as an online student is effective time management. The better you manage your time, the easier it is to achieve your goals. Everyone has the same 24 hours in a day, meaning, it's not about how much time you have, but how well you can manage it. This is especially important for online students, who are often working full-time, taking care of family, or juggling other commitments. Without the camaraderie of a class to motivate you or having a set time where you need to be on campus, effective time management is crucial to helping you stay focused. Effective time management not only helps with your learning but can also make you more productive at work and in your personal life.
7	Outcome of the Event	The students gain knowledge about how Adopt appropriate strategies for dealing with interruptions and anything else which 'steals' time.

REPORT OF THE EVENT

1	Event Name	Decision Making
2	Date of event	18.12.2020
3	Resource person	Mr. D. G. David, AP/CSE/TEC
4	Participants	70
5	Objective of the Event	To understand the process of making choices by identifying a decision, gathering information, and assessing alternative resolutions.
6	Event description	Decision making refers to making choices among alternative courses of action - which may also include inaction. While it can be argued that management is decision making, half of the decisions made by managers within organizations fail. Therefore, increasing effectiveness in decision making is an important part of maximizing your effectiveness at work. Decision making can also be classified into three categories based on the level at which they occur. Strategic decisions set the course of organization. Tactical decisions are decisions about how things will get done. Finally, operational decisions are decisions that employees make each day to run the organization.
7	Outcome of the Event	The ultimate goal is to swap objectionable, problematic, or disagreeable behaviors with more positive, desirable behaviors.

3	Resource person	Mrs. P. Sarāvanaselvi, AP/ECE/TEC

5	Objective of the Event	To understand the importance of Build Trust and Team Bonds
6	Event description	Team building encourages and fosters this environment, where creativity thrives among happy and willing employees as well as leaders. With a nurturing environment, you can see talents discovered from unlikely people. With team building, you also feel refreshed as you step out from the rigors of the office work day, giving you breathing room and helping you gain a fresh perspective. An important factor to note here is trust. All good businesses hold trust as the cornerstone that keeps everything in place. You see upper-level managers in a new light, giving them a personality behind the titles that they hold. It becomes easier to communicate with them. Among employee teams, you need trust among co-workers as they count on each other to get the job done. Team building activities shed light into building trust and team bonds. Leaders get to know and understand employees on a personal level, seeing them as people.
7	Outcome of the Event	The students Improves group morale and promotes team bonding amid adversity

1	Event Name	Behavioral Modification Program for Boys
2	Date of event	26.09.2019
3	Resource person	Mr. D. G. David, AP/EEE/TEC
4	Participants	60
5	Objective of the Event	To understand the behavioral effects that are rewarding increase the likelihood of desired behavior, while aversive consequences reduce the likelihood of a desired response
6	Event description	Behavior modification is defined as "the alteration of behavioral patterns through the use of such learning techniques as biofeedback and positive or negative reinforcement." More simply, you can modify your child's behavior with positive consequences and negative consequences. Behavior modification is based on the idea that good behavior should lead to positive consequences and bad behavior should lead to negative consequences. Discipline strategies fall under positive or negative punishment. Positive punishment involves adding a consequence, while negative punishment involves taking something away.
7	Outcome of the Event	The ultimate goal is to swap objectionable, problematic, or disagreeable behaviors with more positive, desirable behaviors.

6	Event description	Stress is actually a survival response when our body thinks that it is in danger. That is why our sympathetic nervous system kicks in and makes our heart rate increase and gives us a burst of the energy hormone, adrenaline, so that we can deal with whatever situation is being thrown at us. It is natural to feel stress, anxiety, grief, and worry during traumatic events such as mass shootings, natural disasters, or pandemics. Below are ways that you can help yourself, others, and your community manage stress. Stress management is very efficient as it helps in breaking the hold which stress has on our lives. Moreover, you can also become happy, healthy and more productive because of it. The ultimate goal should be to live a balanced life and have the resilience to hold up under pressure.

It is a set of values centered on importance of work and manifested by determination or desire to work hard. Social entrainment of this value is considered to enhance character through hard work that is respective to an individual's field of work. Work ethic is something that people struggle with in our society. Each person in the team is dependent on the other members of the group. When a group of individuals works together, compared to one person working alone, they promote a more efficient work output and are able to complete tasks faster due to many minds intertwined on the same goals and objectives of the business. You can learn a lot of things from the other people on the side when you work together. Teamwork helps to learn essential lessons like trust and dependency on other people.
7	Outcome of the Event	The students gained The benefits of teamwork include increased efficiency, the ability to focus different minds on the same problem and mutual support.

REPORT OF THE PROGRAM

1	Program Name	Competition on "Just a Minute"
2	Date of program	13. 02. 2020
3	Resource person	Dr. R. Rajakumari, HOD/S&H/TEC
4	Participants	16
5	Objective of program	Encourage students to come out of their shell and develop their confidence to communicate in English.
6	Program description	The JAM Competition was conducted English Proficiency Club for the first year students on 13th february 2020 at 02.00 pm. We had a Resource Person Dr. R. Rajakumari HOD/S&amp;H. The coordinators of the Event- Ms. Suleka Robert welcomed the students and the participants and laid out the rules of the JAM competition. A variety of topics were given on the spot to students for speaking for sixty seconds. Some of the topics were: "If I were Invisible", "My Dream Job", "and If Time Stopped" etc. The topics triggered imagination of the participants and kept them engaged in spewing out one thing or the other (though within the context of the topic) with regard to the topics as their turns came otherwise they would have lost the opportunity to score against each other. This provided students with a golden opportunity to practice and exhibit their speaking skills. And it was a resounding success, which was arranged by Ms. S. Merlin, AP/ENG, EPC Coordinator, and TEC. Just a minute (JAM)" is an interesting game like competition to encourage students to showcase their English communication ability. This competition gives excellent opportunity for the students to further develop their communication capabilities through the challenges that they are made to take on during the competition.
7	Outcome of this program	This session provided a platform for the students to show their talents and expertise in impromptu speech

REPORT OF THE PROGRAM

1	Program Name	Debate on "Online Vs Offline Education"
2	Date of program	13. 11. 2019
3	Resource person	Dr. R. Rajakumari, HoD, S&H, TEC
4	Participants	10
5	Objective of program	The primary goal of a debate is for students to generate effective critical thinking into primary issues in the given topic.
6	Program description	English Proficiency Club organized an online debate for 1st year students on "Online Vs. Offline Education" on 13th September 2019. The debate helped the students to think critically and share their views on the given topic. Three students in each team participated in the Debate. One team spoke in favor of online education, and the other teams spoke for offline education. Debater from the team online education said it is a useful teaching method for the new generation and has more flexibility. They feel free to clarify their doubts through online education. Debater from the team offline education said it allows the teachers and students for more interaction. A student who resides in the remote areas finds it difficult to access online education due to poor internet connectivity which may affect their learning. The moderator concluded by saying that online and offline education has to go hand in hand based on the situation. And it was a resounding success, which was arranged by Ms. S. Merlin, AP/ENG, EPC Coordinator, TEC.
7	Outcome of this program	But practical skills are essential in the Engineering profession, so offline education is very much needed to develop technical skills.
